Dear Sir:

Yours of Feb. 25th came to hand today. While in Seattle I made purchases in your line. I note what you say and perhaps in future will give your line of belts a trial. My trade is very small indeed and will hardly pay you for the bother.
 I have a California No. 1's planer and have

 If so how do meet it?

Your favor of January 28th received yesterday.

I am very glad that the people of Nome are so much interested in their school, and that it is of such a high grade.

Some time ago I received notice from the State Department of the bequest of the late Cecil Rhodes and in reply asked certain questions as to requirements etc. and was informed that my communication had been referred to the trustees, but have received nothing further.

Sirs-

Your favor of January 30th received yesterday.

I am very glad that Northwestern Alaska has such a worthy applicant as George Wilkinson for appointment to one of the Rhodes scholarships.

Hoping that the young man may be able to succeed in his ambition, I am,

By act of Congress March 6, 1903 the homestead laws were extended to Alaska giving settlers three hundred twent acres of land.

There are a number of places near the larger towns in south-easter Alaska where I believe you could do well and hay was selling the past winter at fabulous prices in the Copper river valley.

You would do well to come up and pick out your place before deciding on your point as you could be your own best judge of what line you would succeed best in.

My dear Mr. Perkins:

I received your communications of May 26th.

I want to congratulate you upon the success of your efforts while the President was in Seattle.

I know that it must have been a tax upon your own time and energy.

I sincerely thank you for all the kind consideration which I have received at your hands.

It would have been a personal gratification for me to have been at Seattle on that occasion but the reason which I gave and others which I did not made it prudent for me to remain within the limits of the District. Assistant Secretary Ryan telegraphed leave of absence which arrived here May 21st.

I can hardly get up to Nome this season. I gave Collector Jarvis a verbal message to my friends.

I hope that the people of Nome may have a prosperous year. I wish she could shake off the evil influences which have held her back.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

On coming into office I found no rules relating to application for pardon and since I have been in office I have not attempted to formulate any as I think the attorneys in most instances have communicated directly with the Department disregarding the governor.

I do not know what rules are laid down for the Territories but I would suggest that your Department make it known that the same rules apply to Alaska, as the Civil Code provides that "He (the governor) shall perform generally in and over said District all duties as pertain to the office of governor of a territory, so far as the same may be made or become applicable thereto."

And it would seem to me that all applications for pardon should come through the governor to the President.

Yours respectfully,

The bearer of this, Mr. E. A. Jackson of New York City visits your part of Alaska on business. It was his intention to come by the way of Sitka but time would not permit. I have never met Mr. Jackson, but he sends a letter of introduction from Mr. F. S. Witherbee, a college classmate of mine, whose office is at 71 Broadway, New York. He vouches for Mr. Jackson and assures me that he stands well in a business way in that city and that he moves among his circle of friends. With such a letter from Mr. Witherbee, whom I highly esteem and who has done me favors, I should have had pleasure in welcoming Mr. Jackson at this place. Any attention that you can show Mr. Jackson will be much appreciated by me.

Yours of May 27th enclosing a letter from Frank S. Wetherbee has been received. I regret that you could not come this way.

It comes a little awkward to write what you want on such a airy foundation for I do not know the commissioners at Nome or Council City. It is better I think to take a letter to Judge Heers, who appoints the commissioners. I have never met him either but I make bold to give you this note. You may use it with the commissioners if you like.

At present I am unaware that any action has been taken and I do not know what the Secretary's intentions are. All that I can say in regard to the commission concerning which you make inquiry is given in Kinhead's report and is as follows:

"On the interesting and important subject of the condition of the natives, the board of Indian commissioners will make a more extended report to the Hon. Secretary of the Interior. To that report I respectfully direct your attention."

He seems to indicate that the commission was appointed and made a report but on the contrary I do not believe that a commission was appointed or that a report was made. However if the report was made you can ascertain it all when you return to Washington.

I hope that you are having an enjoyable time, and I shall be anxious to see you again before you leave the District.

I have the honor to report concerning patients at the Oregon State Insane Asylum from Alaska as follows:

The Marshal of Division No. 1 has delivered at the asylum during the fourth quarter 1903, the persons of William Ukas, August Hofstad, Charley Klash (an Indian), Andy Anderson, Polly Illin, Jackson (a native), and the commitment, medical certificate, and receipt in each case were filed in this office.

The receipt for the person and the bill of expenses in the case of W. G. Schaefer who was admitted March 18, 1903 have been received from the Marshal of Division No. 3.

The authorities of the asylum have reported the death of William Ukas and Louis Bronson and the escape of George Smith.

Mr. W. W. Casey of Juneau, Alaska asked me the other day when I was there, to request you to have mailed to him the book on the horse and the book on the cow which your department publishes.

Mr. Casey is a very worthy man. He conducts a hotel, a large dairy, and is part owner in a transfer business at Juneau. He is active and one of the men in the territory who is here to build it up.

If the above works can be sent I know that they will be highly appreciated and be of real service to him and others in that community.

Respectfully yours,
