Creator: Office of History and Archaeology

Title: Historic Sites Files

Dates: 1962-1989

Quantity: 1.75 linear feet; 679 microfiche (masters)

Collection Number: Record Group 251, Series 884

Language: English

Collection summary: These files represent the research conducted to nominate particular geographic areas or buildings for inclusion in the National Register of Historic Places, under the National Historic Preservation Act.

Organizational history: Passage of the Alaska Historic Preservation Act (AS 41.35) in 1970 led to the creation of the Office of History and Archaeology within the Dept. of Natural Resources whose staff of historians, archaeologists and architectural historians carry out a mission to identify, document, restore and preserve Alaska's historic buildings and geographic sites and educate the public about their existence and value.

Collection description: These files document research conducted to nominate prehistoric or historic geographic sites or structures to the National Register of Historic Places. Nominations are reviewed by the State Historic Preservation Office and the Alaska Historical Commission. If accepted, the project is forwarded to the Keeper of the National Register (National Park Service) for final review. Information may include applications, reports, surveys, photographs, maps, charts, nominations. Project research varies from 2-3 pages to over 100. The records are divided into four categories:

3330-3: Properties listed in the National Register of Historic Places;

3330-5: Properties designated National Historic Landmarks (also listed in the National Register of Historic Places);

3330-6: Properties eligible but not listed in the National Register of Historic Places because of owner objection or lack of documentation by the managing federal agency, 3330-6;

3330-6N: Properties ineligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places, 3330-6N.

Arrangement: Alphabetical by site name within category 3330-3, etc.

Use restrictions: Files available on master microfiche only; prior notice required for reproducing. Some files may contain sensitive data.

Preferred Citation: Series 884 Historic Sites, Alaska Office of History and Archaeology. Alaska State Archives, Juneau, Alaska.

Works used in preparation of inventory: Alaska Dept. of Natural Resources, Office of History and Archaeology. 4 Feb. 2009 <dnr.alaska.gov/parks/oha>. Alaska Historical Commission, "Guide for prospective members of the Alaska Historical Commission," October, 1985.
